How do we work with groups?

Groups of up to 8 people can easily book via the website. For dinners or events with groups, we would like to speak to you personally in order to meet all your wishes.

Via the contact form on the website you can submit an application, even if you are not sure yet of what you would like. Courtney from our events department will then contact you to discuss the possibilities; because everything is possible at Ron Gastrobar!

Would you rather ask Courtney a question directly?

That is also possible. Mail your request to events@rongastrobar.nl or call 020 305 2765.*

The events department can be reached by phone from Monday to Friday between 9am and 5pm.*
